

COFFEE

Each and every region has a different secret.

World's Famous Super Rich Aromatic Colombian Coffee. This Excelso type of coffee comes from the mountain range region of the central Andes of Colombia, more specifically from The Caldas, Quindío and Risaralda Departamentos (States). These areas are gifted for their climate, since it is an eternal spring that provides an abundance of both sunny and reliable rainfall all year round. Colombian coffee not only guarantees that this fine coffee cherries come from these regions and from a high altitude range of 1500 to 1800 meters above sea level, but also that these coffee cherries come from the best, most knowledgeable, and ecologically caring caficultores (coffeegrowers) of the area.
